Dear Bill:

In July 1988, you contacted us in connection with my letter to Mr. Huffstutler of 12 June. By the way, the date was in error and should have been 12 July.

You told me the Delphic would be invited to bid on the FASAC contract in the fall of 1988. You also cited the concern of Mr. Huffstutler about Delphic's ability to cope with the FASAC project. I did not realize how long ago it was that Rae and I first discussed Delphic (somewhere around 1980-81 while he was still SOVA). Lots of things have happened since and the infant has learned to walk and run. I'd be very pleased to show you our facility and brief you on our emigre monograph program.

Do you have any more information on when the RFP for the FASAC project will be issued?

Sincerely,

Gerold Guensberg
